

Privacy Policy

Purposes of using the personal information This privacy policy sets out how Global Best Incorporation Limited uses and protects any information that customers gave Global Best Incorporation Limited when they use our service.

Acquisition of personal information by unrecognized method

We assure that we will not use Cookie or Web Beacon which is hard to be recognized by customers for collecting personal information.

Offering personal information to third party

Global Best Incorporation Limited will not disclose customers' personal information to third parties except the following situations;

- * If the customer agreed to do so.
- * If it is required to do to protect human lives, bodies or properties and also hard to get the authorization by the customer.
- * If it is required to disclose or provide by law

Measures in Safety Management of Personal Information

For the collected personal information, we are committed to ensuring that we take secure measures to prevent against information leak, damage and lost.

Note for personal information we collect

Required information is optional for customers to fill in. However, please note that if required information is not filled in or with wrong information, we may not provide desired services or responses.

Terms of Service